

Length of Interview: 1 hr.

1. Anne Shoup
- 2.
3. Anne Aitkin
4. Cobalt St.
5. No phone
6. 27
- Shelbourse, Ontario
8. Father Scotland, Mother Canada she died when I was 7 yrs. old
9. Shelbourne, Ontario
10. 1962 left Cobalt returned in 68 to stay
11. Car 12 no. 11 Highway,
12. welding
15. nil
16. welder
17. Homemaker
18. The looks of the town was terrible, but as far as the people go they are Al
19. Busier than it is now
20. Game to Cobalt on a holiday, and ended up staying
21. There was quite a bit of work in 1968 there was lots of work but not in 1962
- 22.
- 23,
24. 3 room house in Gillis Limit 1962 Paid $5. per month rent
25. With in laws at Gillis
26. Carried from neighbours next door 50 feet
27. Hydro
28. wood stove
29. heated building with coal stove
30. Same as there is now. There was T.B.S. here and Laura's shop
31. hotels
32. none
- 33.
34. 12 yrs.
35. buses, cars, trains
36. Dr. Belland
37. Good
38. Toronto
39. still at school
- 40.
- 41.
- 42.
- 43.
- 44.
- 45.slacks
46. slacks
- 47.Nothing than what I usually do during the week

48. I have a watch and ring that was my mothers
 49. It's home
 50. Friendly people
 51. Since Mr. Mathews has become mayor there has been lots of old shacks torn down
New Parks, miners Festival
 52. feel bad about the unemployment situation
 53. yes
 54. Don't like the rents and the cost of living in Cobalt
 55. see more work
 56. Would like to see some industry with no pollution. Good steady pay roll for men and women
 57. summer
 58. watch tv
 59. sewing, jig saw puzzles, knitting
 - 60 They are giving to have to bring in something, because there is nothing. If the price of silver went up. The mines would be open and the smelters too. An awful lot of people made their money out of Cobalt. They didn't but should put some of the money back in Cobalt
 61. Quite a bit, miners Festival, Recreation our parts pur lakes are just beautiful and the
friendly people
 62. someone who has money
- Mrs. Shoup--seems very intelligent and is living on Welfare separated from her husband--
-has enrolled in a R.N.A. course for next September-to be able to support her children and be independent.